Company Number 9191643 in the Registrar of Companies for England and Wales

Dear,

Why Emerging Europe is today one of the largest platforms to promote the economic potential, business opportunities in Central and Eastern European countries. Through our online channels we reach over 50,000 people each month. In global internet search engine results for 'emerging europe' our portal shows up at the top, which makes it an excellent platform to bring exposure to your company, products and services.

We are delighted to invite your company to register in our online B2B matchmaking platform. It will soon become a comprehensive database of companies from the CEE region and beyond — allowing companies to promote themselves internationally, to connect with potential trade partners and suppliers and to find potential investors.

Adding your company information is entirely free of charge and registering can be done via this link.

For access more information about our services, go to the Why Emerging Europe website.

Come find your business opportunity with us!
